

Bled'11 - 7th Slovenian International Conference on Graph Theory

Contribution ID : 69

From spanning forests to edge subsets

Content :

We give some insight into Tutte's definition of internally and externally active edges for spanning forests. Namely we prove, that every edge subset can be constructed from the edges of exactly one spanning forest by deleting a unique subset of the internally active edges and adding a unique subset of the externally active edges.

Primary authors : Mr. TRINKS, Martin (University of Applied Sciences Mittweida)

Co-authors :

Presenter : Mr. TRINKS, Martin (University of Applied Sciences Mittweida)

Session classification : --not yet classified--

Track classification : General session

Type : Oral presentation